Re: Lexington Insurance vs. St. Joseph's Healthcare System, et al.
Docket No.: 07-5513 (PGS)
Our File No.: 86228

Dear Judge Sheridan:

This firm represents the plaintiff in the above-referenced matter, which is scheduled for settlement conference on Tuesday, May 20, 2008. I have spoken with Your Honor's law secretary, Scott Sholder, Esq., and he authorized me to forward this facsimile request for an adjournment of that conference.

My client's representative cannot be available in person or by telephone on May 20th because of scheduling conflicts. Further, I presently have scheduling conflicts as well. Thus, with the kind consent of my adversary, Craig A. Domalewski, Esq., we are seeking an adjournment until June 3, 2008. Both parties have confirmed that the attorneys and their clients are available on that date. Both parties checked on Tuesdays for available dates under the assumption that Tuesday may be Your Honor's day to conduct settlement conferences. However, we are both prepared to be more flexible with the date if necessary.

I thank you Your Honor for consideration of this request.

Respectfully yours,
